Traffic Deaths Show Decrease in Southland

Traffic fatalities in the southland decreased for the fourth consecutive year during 1959, the Automobile Club of Southern California reported today.

Highway deaths in the 13 southern counties totaled 2019, a decrease of 26 from the 1958 toll of 2045. However, only four of the counties recorded reductions: Imperial, Inyo, Los Angeles and San Bernardino.

Pedestrians comprised approximately 23 per cent of the fatalities throughout the southland with 465 deaths in the category. This represents a 3 1/2 per cent decrease from 1958, when 482 pedestrians were killed.

Los Angeles County suffered 801 traffic deaths during 1959, an 8 per cent decrease from 1958. Pedestrian fatalities in the county decreased from 307 during 1958 to 292 during the year just past.

COMMON DRIVING ERRORS

Two common driving errors on wet and slippery roads are oversteering and overbraking, the Allstate Safety Crusade advises. When you turn, steer the wheel smoothly to obtain maximum tire gripping. In using brakes, apply them lightly in a rapid pumping action to keep wheels from locking.

Flutists Scheduled at El Camino

The Los Angeles Flute Club, composed of a group of seven career musicians, will be the featured artists on the Joint Youth Band-Artist Concerts to be given at El Camino College Campus Theater Friday night, Feb. 5. This is the second of a series of four Artists Concerts currently being sponsored by the Torrance Area Youth Band. The Youth Band plays the first half of the programs and the visiting artists perform on the second half.

The first concert, given last December, featured the Los Angeles Brass Ensemble. The third concert, scheduled for March 19, will have the Mormon Choir of Southern California. Winners of the Student Competition Scholarships will be the guest soloists for the fourth concert in May.
